

Dr. Mohammad Saeid Izadi

Experience:

Present Professional Position: Member of the board of Urban Planning & Architecture Research Center of IRAN and Editor of Haft-Shahr Journal

Concurrent Position: Assistant Professor, Member of the Academic Board; BU-ALI SINA University and Tehran University, Faculty of Fine Art, School of Architecture, Restoration Group

Previous Positions:

- September 2007 – 2010: General Director; Office of applied research and Promotional Affairs; Urban Development and Revitalization Company, Iranian Ministry of Housing and Urban Development
- September 1997- 2002: General Director; Office of Researches and Studies, Iranian Ministry of Housing and Urban Development.
- September 1997- 2002: Lecturer in “Urban Design Workshop” and “Final Architectural Design Project”, in the Department of Architecture Islamic Azad University, in the cities of Hamadan and Tabriz.
- September 2000- January 2002: Lecturer in the “Architectural and Urban Conservation: Theory and Design”, Faculty of Architecture, Gilan University.
- May 1990- September 1997: Designer and Project Director, Iran Housing Development Corporation.

Education:

- July 2003-March 2008, PhD in Urban Regeneration at the University of Newcastle upon Tyne, the submitted thesis entitled: A Study on City Centre Regeneration: A comparative analysis of two different approaches to the revitalization of historic city centers in Iran
- January 1996, M.A in Architecture, Faculty of Fine Arts, Tehran University;: M.A Thesis: “Structure of the City, from Public Spaces to the Private Areas: Revitalizing the Connective Spaces between the Old and New Structures in the City of Hamadan”(Received the Research of the Year 1996 award from the Iranian Ministries of Culture and Science)